About Tom:

Tom Lico works with the Agency Consulting Services (ACS) group of FNF as a Business / Leadership consultant in the Midwest/Midsouth Division.

Tom was the President / COO of Capital Title Insurance Agency based in Southfield, Michigan from 2004 to 2024. His professional career began in the mortgage industry in 1988 and by 1998 he became EVP at a Michigan-based mortgage company. His success as a manager and leader led to a promotion as President/COO of the sister title agency in 2004.

While President of Capital Title, he also served on the executive committee of Michigan's largest real estate company, he's a former director and President of the MLTA, a long-term board member of RESPRO, and served a 4-year term on an Agency Advisory Board for a national title under writer.

Tom's expertise is in management & leadership, company culture, and operational efficiency as he turned struggling companies into record profits in both mortgage and title.

Tom is also an accomplished public speaker, event host, and comedian having performed at industry related conferences, award ceremonies, and local comedy clubs. He enjoys golfing, traveling, golfing while traveling, and entertaining.
